

WINEMAKER'S LUNCH

MAS DE DAUMAS GASSAC Tuesday 26th September at 12PM

Mas de Daumas Gassac was founded in 1972 by the Guibert family and quickly took the wine world by storm. The legendary oenologist Émile Peynaud, who consulted the first growths of Bordeaux, Château Margaux and Château Haut Brion, eagerly consulted the Guibert's. Émile remarked - "I've advised the greatest producers in France, but never have been lucky enough to be present at the birth of a Grand Cru."

This quote has stood the test of time. The property produces age worthy white and red wines, along with sparkling wine and rosé.

Join Samuel Guibert, head winemaker and second generation owner of the estate, for a special wine lunch.

Head Chef Stuart Cauldwell has created a menu to pair with the following wines:

Mas de Daumas Gassac 'Frizant' Rose, 2016
Moulin de Gassac Chardonnay Viognier, 2016
Mas de Daumas Gassac Blanc, 2015
Moulin de Gassac Pinot Noir, 2016
Mas de Daumas Gassac Rouge, 2014

Tickets for this winemaker's lunch are £95 per person (incl. service)
