Roast, a unique London wedding venue

Roast is a unique British restaurant and wedding venue situated in the portico of Borough's former flower market. Spectacular views are offered from every angle – whether it's of our open kitchen, the historic setting of Borough Market below or St Paul's Cathedral in the distance – making it a breathtaking setting for a truly memorable wedding celebration.

Roast is a licensed venue and we are happy to host your whole event including your wedding ceremony.

We work with wedding planners or directly with the bride and groom, and whether you would like to keep your wedding small and intimate, or opt for a lavishly grand celebration, we have a dedicated team in place to ensure that your day is wonderful in every way.

Our experienced Events Team is here to ensure that your every need is met – a wedding at Roast promises to be truly unforgettable!

British food & drinks

At Roast, we listen to your ideas and turn them into a reality, combining your vision with our expertise, creativity and attention to detail. Roast celebrates and champions Britain's incredible food heritage, seasonal specialities and outstanding food and drink suppliers. Classical and modern dishes are prepared with care and precision, using the finest seasonal ingredients, many of which are sourced from the stallholders in the market itself.

Our menus change with the seasons, and our team is always pleased to incorporate any special dishes or requests into your wedding menu.

From welcome drinks and canapés to wines, Champagnes and your wedding meal, our mission is to ensure that the food and drink will be a highlight for you and your guests.

"Best wedding meal EVER!"
